Announcement
Intern Wanted – Editorial Assistance

The University of California Press is seeking a capable research intern. The applicant will gain exposure to the field of scholarly and academic publishing, and will report to a small team of acquisitions editors. Responsibilities would include some or all of the following:

- Research projects such as disciplinary competitive research or market analysis
- Preparing permissions and art materials for production
- Working with and preparing manuscripts for production
- Photocopying, mailing, and other clerical duties

The position requires a commitment of ten hours per week.

Please send email with resume to:
Merrik Bush-Pirkle, mbushpirkle@ucpress.edu